LAST MEETING

The Wolverines jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter at Geneva but the hosts rallied for the win at Reeves Field October 10, 2009 in Beaver Falls, Pa.

Andrew DiDonato fired first quarter touchdown passes to Luke O'Hara and Blaine Miller.

Kicker Craig Bicehouse then booted a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to give the Wolverines a 17-14 halftime lead.

Geneva's blocked field goal return in the fourth quarter helped set up Gerard Muschette's three-yard touchdown run.

Muschette scored three second-half touchdowns.

O'Hara caught six passes while Miller and Will McCoy both had five receptions each.

Jason Ferguson tallied a game-high 14 tackles, along with 1.5 sacks for Grove City. Tony Clark added eight stops, including a sack.

Junior guard Lucas Chakot and junior defensive tackle Marcus Chakot are twin brothers. They are the younger brothers of former Grove City wide receiver Adam Chakot (2006-09).

Junior defensive end Zack Patterson is the younger brother for former Wolverine defensive end Mike Patterson (2001-04).

Sophomore safety Shawn Mercer is the younger brother of former wide receiver Stephen Mercer (2005-08). Stephen Mercer earned the team's Most Valuable Player award in 2008.

Junior wide receiver Will McCoy is the younger brother of former Grove City basketball player Joe McCoy, who earned four letters as a shooting guard from 2006 to 2010.

Senior safety Mark Rossol is the younger brother of former Grove City volleyball player Emily Rossol (2003-06).

Senior linebacker Matt Skyrm is the cousin of former Grove City baseball player Jamie Skyrm (2005-06).

Wide receivers coach Dave Lacinski is the brother of former Grove City quarterback Steve Lacinski, who started 34 games from 1997-2000.

Outside linebackers coach Todd Gibson is the son of first-year tight ends coach John Gibson.

START ME UP

Three Grove City players made their first collegiate start September 25 in the Wolverines' Presidents' Athletic Conference game at Waynesburg.

Junior quarterback Zach Gross, junior tight end Joseph Gulaskey and sophomore cornerback Mike Brown all broke into the starting lineup.

Last week against Thomas More, freshman cornerback Chris Gibbs made his first start, as did senior defensive lineman Dan Pesta.

A total of 12 Grove City players have made their first collegiate start during the 2010 season.

ON THE MOVE

Several Grove City players have switched positions since the end of the 2009 season.

Junior Clayton Hall moved from wingback to quarterback. He came to Grove City as a quarterback in 2007.

Sophomore Jon Brake switched from quarterback to wide receiver while junior tackle Nick Nosker moved to center. Sophomore Aaron Sircy also moved from tackle to center.

Defensively, sophomore safety Nick Prochnow is now at outside linebacker and junior Vince Angelo slid from outside to inside linebacker.

In recent weeks, wingback Jim Bailey moved to cornerback. Safety Chris Gibbs also moved to corner.

MAKING THEIR POINT

Under head coach Chris Smith, Grove City has eclipsed the 30-point mark 48 times. The Wolverines are 45-3 in those games. The first defeat in that span came Nov. 7, 1998 at Muhlenberg as Grove City fell in overtime, 34-31.

All-time, Grove City is 125-5-1 when scoring 30 or more points in a game.

SPECIAL BLEND

Grove City's special teams units feature several veterans who have plenty of experience in the kicking game.

Senior Craig Bicehouse handles the kicking duties after earning All-Presidents' Athletic Conference honors in each of the last two seasons. He set a new Grove City record with 53 kick points in 2009.

Junior Ed Reith is a two-year veteran at punter. He earned All-PAC Second Team recognition as a rookie in 2008.

Senior A.J. Tapper is in his fourth year as punt snapper and senior Blane Gold snaps for extra points and field goals.

Junior quarterback Zach Gross will hold for place kicks. He is the first quarterback to hold for Grove City since Todd Smargiasso in 2002.

Wide receivers have traditionally held for Grove City kickers in recent years. Previous holders include: Jake Dailey (1997-2000), Todd Gibson (2001), Dave DiDonato (2003-04), Matt Kulinski (2005-06) and Stephen Mercer (2007-08).

Tight end Chris Rich held in 2009.

Sophomore Shane Kaclik and freshman Jim Bailey will return kickoffs. Senior Butch Kriger and Bailey will field punts.

TREND BREAKER

At Waynesburg September 25, junior Zach Gross became the first Grove City quarterback to make his first start on the road in eight years. In 2002, Todd Smargiasso started the season opener at Hiram.

Since then, each of the last five Grove City quarterback to start a game made his first start at Robert E. Thorn Field.

Recent Quarterback Debuts

2009: Clayton Hall, vs. CMU
2006: Andrew DiDonato, vs. CMU
2004: Scott Fichter, vs. Wooster
2004: Bradford Clark, vs. Manchester
2003: Sam Mowrey, vs. Hiram
2002: Todd Smargiasso, at Hiram
2001: Mike Kashurba, vs. Dickinson

Clark is the last Grove City quarterback to win his first start as the Wolverines downed visiting Manchester 54-14 in the 2004 season opener. Mowrey (68-20) and Smargiasso (30-7) also won their debuts.

PRIDE AND POISE

Grove City has been the least-penalized team in the Presidents' Athletic Conference in four of the last five seasons (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008).

This season, Grove City ranks seventh in fewest penalty yards against at 67.8 yards per game. Grove City foes have been penalized an average of 80.2 yards per game this year, the second-highest total in the conference.

The Wolverines have not exceeded the 100-yard mark in penalties in one game since Sept. 6, 2003 -- a span of 73 games. In a 68-20 win over Hiram that day, the Wolverines had 13 penalties for 103 yards.

Last week, Grove City had 11 penalties for 98 yards against Thomas More.

LOOKING OUT FOR NUMBER TWO

Grove City last rushed for a two-point conversion since October 1, 2005, when Seth Fox scored in a 21-12 win over Bethany.

Grove City's last unsuccessful two-point run came November 8, 2003 when Kings Point stopped Brandon McGlothlin. The Wolverines won that game 29-14.

The Wolverines' last two-point conversion came September 19, 2009 in a 35-14 victory at Bethany. Andrew DiDonato threw a successful conversion pass to Luke O'Hara.

SAFETY FIRST

Grove City has recorded a safety in each of its last two games. Three weeks ago, the Wolverines received a safety from Waynesburg in the closing moments of the teams' September 25 game.

Last week, the Grove City defense tackled Thomas More's Domonique Haydon in the end zone for a safety.

Prior to this, Grove City had not recorded a safety since September 11, 2004, when Aaron Margo and Ben Szelong tackled Carnegie Mellon's Jon Cakert in the end zone in a 16-14 win.

Grove City yielded a safety in its 31-16 victory at Westminster September 18. The two-pointer marked the first safety permitted by the Wolverines since September 8, 2007 at Carnegie Mellon.

AMONG THE PAC LEADERS

Grove City leads the Presidents' Athletic Conference in third down efficiency, having converted 41 percent (33 of 79) of their opportunities.

The Wolverines also rank third in average time of possession, averaging 31 minutes, 14 seconds per game.

Grove City is second in red zone defense, having stopped opponents on six of 16 trips inside the 20-yard line.

Individually, Ed Reith ranks third in punting with an average of 38.6 yards per kick. Jarred Frawley is second with two fumble recoveries.

GOING THE DISTANCE

Junior quarterback Zach Gross threw a 73-yard touchdown pass to Blaine Miller September 25 at Waynesburg. It is the second-longest pass completion in program history.

The longest pass play in program history came in September 1997, when Steve Lacinski threw a 95-yard touchdown pass to R.J. Bowers.

Rick Sems owns the longest reception by a Grove City wide receiver as he hauled in a 72-yard catch from Duke Johncour in the 1991 season opener against Duquesne.

Gross is the first Grove City quarterback to have two touchdown passes of 65 yards or longer in one season. He threw a 64-yard touchdown to Luke O'Hara September 18 in the Wolverines' 31-16 victory at Westminster.

The 2010 season is the first season since 1997 that Grove City has had two players throw three or more touchdown passes in the same season. Gross has four touchdown passes and Clayton Hall has thrown for three scores.

In 1997, Lacinski and Jeff Porter both threw three touchdown passes each.

DOUBLE DUTY

Three Grove City players also participated in a spring sport during the 2009-10 academic year.

Two players helped the Grove City baseball team advance to the Eastern College Athletic Conference Southern Championship Tournament last spring.

Senior strong safety Butch Kriger started in left field for the Wolverines and earned Second Team All-Presidents' Athletic Conference. He hit .405 in 2010 and posted a .494 on-base percentage.

He hit .388 as a freshman outfielder/DH in 2008. Kriger ranked third on the squad in batting average and on-base percentage (.471) while helping the Wolverines earn their first-ever invitation to the NCAA Championship Tournament.

Meanwhile, junior defensive tackle Marcus Chakot saw action in 11 games as a reserve catcher in 2010. He hit .286 (4 for 14) with one double.

As a freshman, Chakot went 6 for 10 and doubled twice.

Senior offensive tackle Pete Polesnak competed as a javelin thrower for the College's track and field team. He took 12th at the PAC Championships with a best throw of 158 feet, 7 inches.

RETURNING ALL-PAC HONOREES

Eight current Grove City players earned All-Presidents' Athletic Conference recognition following the 2009 season.

Senior offensive tackle Pete Polesnak achieved First Team All-PAC distinction while senior kicker Craig Bicehouse, junior linebacker Jason Ferguson and junior tailback Blaine Miller all earned Second Team All-PAC distinction.

Four current players earned All-PAC Honorable Mention: junior nose tackle Jarred Frawley, senior wide receiver Luke O'Hara, junior offensive tackle Zach Start and senior wide receiver Zach Summy.

Junior Ed Reith earned Second Team All-PAC at punter in 2008. Ferguson and Polesnak both received Honorable Mention designation that season, also.

PAC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

Three current Grove City players landed on the Presidents' Athletic Conference Academic Honor Roll for the fall 2009 semester: current senior Luke Harmon, junior Tim Irwin and senior Mark Rossol.

Academic Honor Roll distinction is awarded to student-athletes who achieve a 3.60 grade-point average or higher during their season of competition.

WORLDWIDE WOLVERINES

The Grove City College roster features players from 11 different states this season.

Pennsylvania leads the way with 47 Keystone State products on the roster.Twenty-one current Wolverines are from Ohio.

There are two players each from Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey and New York. Grove City also has one player each from California, Florida, Michigan, Oregon and Virginia.

In recent years, Grove City has also had players from Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

200 CLUB

Quarterback Clayton Hall became the fourth Grove City back to rush for 200 or more yards in a single-game September 4 against Carnegie Mellon.

Hall ran for 228 yards, becoming the first Wolverine back to go over the 200-yard mark since Steve Roberts ran for 205 in a 9-0 win over Bethany October 27, 2001.

The 228 yards are the most for a Grove City back since R.J. Bowers ran for 266 at Waynesburg October 14, 2000.

Bowers, Hall, Roberts and Doug Steiner are the only Grove City backs to rush for 200 yards or more in one game. Steiner became the first when he ran for 257 yards against Thiel September 28, 1996.
