CHARLEY BERRY SIGNS TWO-YEAR GRID CONTRACT

Charley Berry former Lafayette star has been offered a two year contract as grid coach for Grove City College. His home is in Phillipsburg, N. J., and he played for Lafayette during the years 1921-24. In 1924 he was selected as an All-American end of the last eleven selected by Walter Camp.

Berry stands more than six feet in height and weighs 190 pounds. Such physical characteristics plus his reputed skill and personality ought to make him a worthy successor to the popular Charley Bowser. He graduated from Lafayette in 1925, and that fall he played professional football with the Pottsville team. Last season he coached the Coral Gables team in Florida.

Dr. Sutherland of Pitt, who coached Berry for three years, recently paid a high compliment to the new Crimson mentor. "Charley came to me as a star, but he was still willing to learn as the humblest freshman. He was good enough to make a regular berth on our unbeaten 1921 team his first year in school and when he was a junior I used him for a time to virtually direct the team when my regular quarterback was injured and unable to play."

Grove City has had a championship team for two years, and the new coach faces a most difficult job. He must build a new team, and championship teams are not built in a season. However with a two year contract he should have an opportunity to show his ability to produce a football team.

No statement has been issued regarding Berry's assistant. This matter will probably not be settled for some time and likely will be left largely in Berry's hands.

Collegian's Last For This Semester

Owing to the fact that Examination Week begins next Saturday, this will be the last issue of the Collegian for the Fall Semester.

The first number of the Spring Semester will appear on the first Monday of the next term. That will be the 14th of February.

There have been fifteen issues of the Collegian during the past semester, and during the Spring Semester there will be fifteen regular issues and the Commencement Number, making thirty-one numbers for the year.

ATTENTION! JUNIORS AND SENIORS!

 The Seniors and Juniors pictures must be taken by the end of this semester. All retakes must also be taken and the proofs handed to the photographer. This is a final deadline on these pictures for they must go to the engravers the first part of February.

REV. SHERWIN SPEAKS HERE

The students were very fortunate in being able to have had Dr. Sherwin, Allegheny College Graduate and Pastor of Oil City Second Presbyterian Church with them during the week of prayer. Dr. Sherwin, at a considerable sacrifice of his own valuable time, came to our midst to bring us messages of comfort and to strengthen our faith and belief in the ideals of our fathers.

After the first few sentences of Dr. Sherwin's first sermon the students were all won by his clear, masterful voice coming from the convictions of the honest God fearing man within. Each day his addresses took a new trend upon some vital question of the hour. The sound advice and warnings to beware temptations which he impressed upon us are most certainly not to be without decided results.

Dr. Sherwin devoted the entire week to our needs. For certain hours of each day, he was at the service of any student who wished to consult him upon any matter, either as to their life's work or present complications. Needless to say, this opportunity was made the most of by those wanting help and they were deeply grateful for the returns of their visit to such an eminent man.

Thursday evening Dr. Sherwin kindly consented to speak to the Colonial girls gathered in the Colonial for their bi-weekly vesper Services. His address was made more on the order of a heart to heart talk than a sermon. His words were very matter of fact and straight-forward so that he very effectively brought home to the girls the point that this world looks to its women for the ideals and worthy aspirations of the race.

In conclusion, we may safely state that this week of prayer will reap its profits and Dr. Sherwin's exhortations will not have been in vain.

Gym Exhibition Next Friday Night

Friday, January 28th, at 7:30, the semester's gymnasium exhibition, under the direction of Miss Esther Post, will be given in the Ketler Gymnasium. It bids fair to be one of the best ever presented. Miss Post has added a new feature to her advanced classes, that of natural dancing. The girls have all entered into the spirit of the dances and, through persistent practices, have attained a high perfection of poise and grace.

The Faculty and all the students are cordially invited to witness this exhibition. The following program will be given:

Danish Gymnastics (Freshman Gym class.)
 Arkansas Travelers, (Beginning Dance Class.)
 Drabant, (Intermediate Dance Class.)
 La Petite Ukrannian, (Beginning Dance Class.)
 Jota Argonessa, (Advanced Intermediates.)
 Sorrintina, (Intermediate Dance Class.)

CRIMSON PLAYS TECH SATURDAY

Saturday night the fast Carnegie Tech basketball team will meet the Crimson on the local floor.

Grove City has passed through a rather hectic week of basketball history, but the defeats by Wash-Jeff and Allegheny have not lowered the morale of Coach Thorn's varsity. Just the opposite has happened. The boys are fighting mad, and are determined to down Coach Irwin's Tartans.

Carnegie has not played any varsity games for a week or more, as they have been having their final exams there. With such players as

ALLEGHENY IS VICTOR IN ONE-SIDED GAME, 40-23

Completely bewildered by the speedy Allegheny College passers, Grove City College was forced to accept a humiliating 40 to 23 defeat at Meadville Friday night in one of the season's biggest upsets. It marked the first defeat for the Crimson quint at the hands of the Methodists since the 1924 campaign, and came as a distinct blow to the team and ardent followers of the floor sport here.

Allegheny realized one of her fondest ambitions as she hurled the Grovers into the oblivion of defeat, and her triumph was one of the greatest recorded in the history of the Methodist's institution.

The game from a Crimson viewpoint was a "night-cap" affair. After the opening period, the Allegheny tossers, led by the clever McClurg and Cibula, flipped the spheroid through the hoops at will, and the Grove City fans, who attended the game, were awe-stricken at the way Captain Stevens and his mates crumbled before the Methodists' attack. Repeated time-outs failed to halt the march of the rival foe-men and Baker's cohorts increased their lead with such rapidity that victory could not be denied.

The team play of Allegheny and the accurate field goal shooting of the representative quint was the best seen in years. The boys worked together with clock-work precision, and easily outclassed Bob Thorn's inexperienced floor performers. Thorn made numerous substitutions to check the attack of the Methodists, but to no avail.

Grove City played its brand of ball in the initial period. Both teams the tipoff, and fans settled back in their seats to watch a typical Grove appeared evenly matched shortly after City-Allegheny battle, but it wasn't long until the game resulted in a

Girls Debate This Evening in Carnegie

The annual inter-club debate between the Speedwell and Philokalian Literary Clubs takes place this evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Carnegie auditorium. The question for the debate is: Resolved, that the United States Congress should have the power to enact laws of marriage and divorce in the United States.

Without a doubt the debate will be both interesting and exciting. The prize at stake is the Silver Debating Cup, which has been in the possession of the Speedwell Literary Club for a period of several years. Last year the Philokalian Club won and now need to win only two more years in order to ho the cup.

The Speedwell debating team, which is taking the affirmative side of the question, is composed of Almira Rhea, Ruth Sangree, Leah Velock, and Helene Bow, alternate. The Philokalian debating team, on the negative side, includes Marian Craig, Marie Fisher, Marietta Edmund, and Mary George, alternate.

THE WEATHER

A favorite topic at all times is the weather. When topics for conversation are lacking, the subject of weather is brought up and the time passes in a satisfactory way.

Usually the conversation deals with fair, sunny weather. However, this last week of Grove City weather would make one believe that the sun never shown and that never would the heavens cease the rain. In such weather we are thankful for our slickers and our rubber boots. And it is quite needless to say that in rainy weather our campus fairly swarms with bright-colored umbrellas, slickers, and galoshes.

Dean Entertains House Council of January, Mrs. Lois Cory-Thompson entertained the House Council for the Fall Session at a tea in the Colonial colonnade. After a pleasant social hour, Mrs. Thompson thanked and complimented the out-going president, Miss Erma Hoburg, and also presented her with a beautiful table runner. Each member of the Council also received a favor in the form of a boutonniere.

Pi Gamma Mu

The regular meeting of the Grove City chapter of the Social Science Honorary fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, will be held in the Shakespeare room Thursday evening.

The following papers will be presented:

"Americanization," by Eugene Barnard.

"Blue Sky Laws," by Jane Van Horn.

"Consolidated Schools," by Wendell McConnell.

This will be the last regular meeting of the Fall semester. The officers elected at the last meeting will be inaugurated at this meeting. Merl Burrows is the new president, succeeding Prof. Marc Leager.

Alex Slavcoff Wins Declamation Prize

A short time ago the Webster Club experienced a program that will remain in the minds of the present members, as one of the outstanding events in the club's history. Dr. D. C. McEwen, an honorary member of the Club who has for the past few years taken a very active interest in Club affairs, aroused the interest of the members by offering a prize of five dollars to be awarded the individual who presented the best declamation, an excerpt from Webster's Masterpieces, in competition with other members of the Club.

On the evening of the contest seven members reported fully prepared to make their bid for the prize. The declamations were limited to lengths between six and ten minutes; and the judges were Professors Welden, Platt, Miller, Walters and Fundenberg. Within the next hour the audience was swayed by eloquence that never before manifested itself.

Firey passages from the Webster-Hayne debate; passionate passages from the tribute to Adams and Jefferson; respectful words from the Bunker Hill address. All were delivered with emphasis and expression that suited the type of selection.

The judges found it necessary to confer behind closed doors before they could return a verdict. Their final decision was in favor of Alexander Slavcoff, and Dr. McEwen presented the winner with the prize. Mr. Slavcoff took his declamation from the Bunker Hill address, and the way in which he entered into the spirit of his speech was largely responsible for his securing the decision of the judges. Honorable mention was made of the declamations of Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Hayes.

It is the belief of the members of the Club that this program is the most remarkable ever presented. Most remarkable due to the high class character of the selections and their presentation.

DOING ONE'S PART

In a group of workers, each individual is practically forced to take his of her share of the work. If someone lags behind, that person's non-performance makes so much trouble, that such a one becomes unpopular, and may lose his job.

In carrying on the activities of a college, there are also many laggards. As such efforts are voluntary, there is no way of forcing such people to do their part. Some day people who fail to take their share in the activities will become so unpopular that they will see the necessity of taking hold to do their share of the common task.

Speedwell Club

It is necessary that all members of the Speedwell Club be present at business meeting tonight at 6:30.

The program for open meeting promises to be entertaining. Come and bring a visitor.

Commercial Club

Last but not best, that's what you could say of the last meeting of the Commerce Club for the semester. Major Allen and his committee sure are to be commended for the programs we have had this semester, and they promise even better and more interesting programs after the beginning of next semester.

The first thing last Tuesday was the reading of a paper by Haydn Evans on "Teaching as a Profession." The purpose of this paper was to show us that teaching was a profession in itself, and should not be considered a stepping stone to some other profession. After reading this very interesting and instructive paper. Hade told us of some of the other views a person might take of this subject. But we agree with Haydn that teaching should be, and is rapidly becoming a true profession.

We have all heard Dorothy Allen sing before, but we enjoy her better each time. We thank you, Dorothy, and hope to hear you again very soon.

And then Miss Hoezle rounded out the musical part of the program with a piano solo. Miss Hoezle is a Freshman and we have never heard her play before. We hope she will come to club again.

And then Jerry Fay had charge of the recreational part of the meeting, or rather he spoke to us about Professional Football. Jerry gave us a very interesting talk, with an inside view. It was a treat to have Jerry with us again, especially on the program.

After Dink Yingling had displayed his culinary power we left, to begin again next semester.

From what we have heard "True Love" braved the wintry storms and arrived in time for a date. OUTSTANDING PLAYERS

Jess Carver, sports writer for the Pittsburgh Gaette Times, says that the outstanding players in the Tri-State district this year are few and far between.

He listed Angelo, Grove City sophomore, as one of the few prominent players.

Others were O'Donovan (Duquense); McClurg (Allegheny); Hageburg (West Virginia); and Lewis (Westminster).

Tudor Lewis, former Farrell High star, was a member of the Grove City squad of two years ago. He is now playing a good game for Westminster.

Cliff Bowden Is Honored at Penn

Announcement has been made of the selection of Clifford M. Bowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowden, 308 State street, Grove City, Pa., as a member of the board of editors of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review.

The Law Review is published by the students of the University Law School under the supervision of the faculty and is one of the most prominent legal periodicals of its kind in the country. It contains leading articles contributed by members and articles contributed by eminent legal authorities and annotations on recent important decisions written by the members of the board of editors. Because of its comprehensive treatment of current legal problems, it possesses a wide circulation among members of the bar.

Election to the Law Review board takes place in the student's second year upon recommendation by the faculty made on a basis of scholastic achievement and demonstrated ability in the writing of legal articles. Twelve of the one hundred and sixty second year law students were chosen in the recent election, thus making membership on the board a distinctive honor.

Cliff Bowden is a graduate of Grove City College in the Class of 1925. During his local college career Cliff was recognized as the most outstanding man of his class. He was the class salutatorian, and took part in many extra-curricular activities, being president of the Senior Class, President of the Student Council, President of the Delta Iota Kappa Fraternity, and prominent in debating circles as a member of the Shakespeare Club and the varsity teams. Freshmen Girls Beat Juniors, 37-34

On Tuesday afternoon the Freshman girls defeated the Junior girls by a score of 37-34. It was a close but not fast game. At the half the score was 22-18 in favor of the Juniors. But the Freshmen, although one of their guards was disqualified, entered the last half with a little more fight than they had during the first half.

For the first game of the season both teams played well. The line up was as follows:

Juniors	Freshmen
F.—Cunningham	Stephens
F.—Molstein	Sample
C.—Edmunds, Capt.	Cookson, Capt.
G.—Boyd	Armstrong
G.—Burkholder	Youtes
G.—Masson	Reiter

Substitutes: Moore for Youtes.

Referees: Dotzenroth, Meade.

Senior Girls Win from Juniors

On Thursday the Juniors lost their second game of the week to the Seniors. The teams were unevenly matched as the score 45-14 showed. The Juniors fought hard until the final whistle but were unable to surpass the superior team work and marksmanship of their opponents.

Memorial SECTION ONE

With the approach of mid-term One of Memorial are busily engaged with their school work in hopes of doing away with "eleventh hour" cramming. All the boys in this section have been doing remarkable work this year and undoubtedly will come through their exams with flying colors.

Since the popular indoor sport horseshoes has been abandoned in this section, the boys have devoted their attention to playing bridge, "500", and pinochle. Jim McConnell, Vaughn Wagner, Bill Cribbs, Dick Sweet, Archie McVicker, and Gene Hammond are holding the upper hand in card playing.

"Who got away with "Mose" Lantz' two and a half dollar bottle of toilet water last week and then returned it after the poor Homewood chap had almost died of "grouchi-tis?" That's the question all the "Hawkshaws" of the dorm are trying to answer. The toilet water disappeared from Lantz' trunk, and after cross examining everyone in the section "Mose" gave it up as a "lost article." Following an announcement in the dining room concerning the lost toilet water "Mose" returned to his room and to his surprise the toilet water was on his dresser. Looks like "Mose" was the victim of a joke!!!!

Members of section one are elated to learn that Bill Dotterer was acquitted of his bribery charge by Judge Kenesaw Sweet. Dotterer had false accusations made against him concerning the "throwing" of a basket ball game but the evidence was not strong enough to convict him and he was set free by the jury.

Section One welcomes its new member—"Pete" Stevens—Captain of the varsity basketball team. Stevens is rooming with "Brick" Davies, the popular Johnsonburg chap.
